On February 13, 2006, Giuliana Dunham will take over as the First District's Community Prosecutor. Ms. Lucas would like to thank Commander Groomes, the First District officers and the community for their interest and support of community prosecution.

THE COURT REPORT

On January 30, 2006, Joshua E. Ross, age 21, of the Trinidad Neighborhood in Northeast Washington, D.C., was sentenced by the Honorable John H. Bayly, Jr. to life without parole plus twenty-five years after having been found guilty by jury of seven charges including First-Degree Premeditated Murder while Armed with aggravating circumstances, two counts of Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, three counts of Possession of a Firearm during a Crime of Violence and one count of Carrying a Pistol without a License. (Case No. F-4799-04; PSA 103)

According to trial testimony, Ross was a member of a Trinidad gang that had been in a long-standing street war with a gang from the 21st Street and Maryland Avenue neighborhood. On the night of July 24, 2004, a 19-year-old girl sat in her parked car in the 1400 block of F Street, NE, with a 20-year-old female friend and 15-year-old Myesha Lowe, an honor student who had just finished the ninth grade at Hine Junior High School. The girls saw a suspicious car with black tinted windows drive by their car several times. The evidence showed that Ross was in the front passenger seat armed with a 9mm semi-automatic pistol, a fellow gang member was in the back seat armed with a .40 semi-automatic pistol and wearing a black mask over his face, and a third individual was driving.

The evidence further showed that the men believed that the 19-year-old girl's baby's father was responsible for the murder of one of their fellow gang members. On its final lap of the girls' car, the dark car pulled up next to the driver's side of girl's car, and Ross and a second gang member opened fire on the car, firing more than 20 shots into the vehicle. Although two of the girls dove to the floor of the car in time to avoid being shot, one of the bullets hit Myesha Lowe in her head and killed her. After the surviving victims identified Ross, the police arrested him four days later. He subsequently confessed to the shooting, but claimed that he tried to halt the shooting when he realized there were females in the car.

Shawn Gray, 33, and Leonard Johnson, 28, were found guilty after a jury trial of Conspiracy to Defraud the D.C. Government and several weapons charges for their roles in a shooting which they planned and executed while the two were inmates at the D.C. Jail. On January 26, 2006, Johnson was sentenced to a term of 69 months imprisonment. Gray is due to be sentence on February 16, 2006 before the Honorable Rhoda Reid Winston (Case No. F-2253-04; PSA 107).

According to the government's evidence, in the fall of 2003, the defendants, Shawn Gray and Leonard Johnson, were inmates in the Southwest-3 cellblock of the Central Detention Facility, also known as the D.C. Jail, which is run by the D.C. Department of Corrections. During that time, Shawn Gray smuggled the gun into the prison after another person threw a package containing the gun from an area near a public street outside the jail to a ledge over a door in a wall outside the recreation yard. Gray retrieved the gun from inside the recreation area by climbing the door and pulling the package from the ledge and through some bars. He then secreted the package in his prison jumpsuit for transport back to his cell. Gray then stored the handgun used in the shooting in a mop closet in the jail. That same fall, the defendants, along with two other inmates, named Frederick Robinson and Jamal Jefferson, each agreed to be “victims” of a shooting inside the jail for the expressed purpose of suing the District of Columbia government and the District of Columbia Department of Corrections. The four agreed that each would be shot and thereafter would lie to investigators by saying that an unknown gunman had shot them while they were smoking marijuana in a cell. Thereafter, each planned to file a lawsuit based on that fraudulent version of the shooting.

On December 20, 2003, at approximately 1:45 p.m., Shawn Gray, Leonard Johnson, Jamal Jefferson and Frederick Robinson, gathered in Jefferson’s cell. The four decided to use Jefferson’s cell because it was the furthest from the guard station in the cellblock. Once all four were inside the cell, they shut the cell door and stuffed towels and other items in the small opening in the door to muffle the noise of the gunshots. Shawn Gray then covered his hands with rubber cleaning gloves and with socks into which he had previously cut finger holes. Gray then retrieved a small .25 caliber semi-automatic handgun from under a mattress in the cell where moments before he had previously placed it. Pursuant to their prior agreement, Leonard Johnson and Frederick Robinson consented and allowed Shawn Gray to shoot each of them once; Leonard Johnson in the upper right shoulder area and Frederick Robinson in the upper right arm. Gray also shot himself in the right calf. Despite the prior agreement, after seeing two others shot, Jamal Jefferson told Shawn Gray that he no longer wanted to participate in the plan and did not wish to be shot; nevertheless Shawn Gray shot Jamal Jefferson in the right knee.

After the shooting, Frederick Robinson, and Leonard Johnson ran out of the cell. Shawn Gray crawled out of the cell and placed the handgun in a nearby trashcan. Jamal Jefferson dragged himself out of the cell on his stomach. The four injured inmates reported the shooting to the guards, who then locked down all cells. The four injured inmates were then transported to the infirmary and eventually the hospital for treatment. In their initial interviews with investigators, each of the four stated that an unknown gunman had been responsible for the shooting.

In returning the verdicts, the jury found Shawn Gray and Leonard Johnson guilty of Conspiracy to Defraud the D.C. Government, Carrying a Pistol Without a License, Carrying a Dangerous Weapon, Possession of an Unregistered Firearm and Unlawful Possession of Ammunition. The jury found both defendants not guilty of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon on Jamal Jefferson and the related charge of Possession of a Firearm During the Commission of a Crime of Violence or Dangerous Offense. Jamal Jefferson and Frederick Robinson each had entered pleas of guilty prior to the trial.

Damon Franklin, 20, formerly of 1200 block of G Street, N.E. was sentenced by D.C. Superior Court Judge John H. Bayly to 16 years and 8 months of incarceration for his role in the July 13, 2003, brutal beating of Carl Francis Wellman, Jr., then 29, which resulted in Mr. Wellman’s death on August 8, 2003. Franklin was the last of three co-defendants to be sentenced in the case, following a July 2005 trial in which a D.C. Superior Court jury convicted Franklin and co-defendant Akande Johnson, 23, formerly of the 700 block of 11th Street, N.E. of second-degree murder while armed, and Walter Clark, 20 formerly of the 1800 block of Independence Avenue S.E., of involuntary manslaughter. Judge Bayly previously sentenced Johnson to a 15-year prison term on October 14, 2005. Clark received an 8 year and 4 month prison sentence on October 3, 2005. (Case No. F-6151-03; PSA 101)

The government's evidence at trial showed that in the early morning hours of July 13, 2003, Johnson, Franklin and Clark, all attended a cabaret held at a church in Southeast Washington, D.C. Also at that cabaret was the decedent, Carl Wellman, who was a barber at Hillman's Barbershop on H Street, Northeast. At some point during that night, a fight broke out in the church basement. During that fight, Johnson was struck by an unknown individual. Also during that fight, a friend of Franklin and Clark was injured when he was struck with a bottle by an unknown person.

Later that night, sometime after leaving the cabaret, Carl Wellman drove to the 600 block of 10th Street, Northeast, Washington, D.C., to drop off friends after the evening out. As soon as Wellman drove up, Johnson, Franklin, and Clark, who were already present in the block, walked toward Wellman's car. Johnson, who had been a customer of Wellman, confronted Wellman, who was still seated in the driver's seat, demanding to know if Wellman hit him at the cabaret. Wellman got out of the car and said he did not hit Johnson. Clark, who was standing nearby, then approached Wellman and threw a single punch, striking Wellman in the face. Wellman fell to the ground. With Wellman on the ground, Johnson and Franklin began kicking and stomping on him.

Eyewitness testimony at the trial established that Johnson and Franklin repeatedly kicked and stomped Wellman on his head and upper body, and that Wellman initially attempted to defend himself by trying to crawl and pull himself from the ground back into his car. The assault finally came to an end when a witness yelled at the defendants to stop. The defendants left the scene as a group. Wellman, who was at that point unconscious, was transported to Howard University Hospital by a friend, where he was admitted to the surgical intensive care unit. Over the next three weeks, Wellman remained at the hospital in a semi-vegetative state, until his death from his injuries on August 8, 2005.

Defendant Paul Shorter, 40, was sentenced by the Honorable Rhonda Reid-Winston of the District of Columbia Superior Court to a total of 39 years in prison for the beating death of a senior citizen during a robbery. The defendant was found guilty on June 29, 2005, by a District of Columbia Superior Court jury of first-degree felony murder, first-degree burglary, mayhem, and robbery. (Case No. F-22-04; PSA 101)

According to the government's evidence, on May 17, 2003, the defendant was trespassing inside of 461 H Street, NW, Washington, D.C. This address is a D.C. Housing Authority Residence, specifically reserved for senior citizens and people with medical, physical or mental disabilities. The defendant went to the apartment of the victim, Odell Keys, with one of the residents of the building who was physically and mentally handicapped. That resident let the defendant into Mr. Keys' apartment. While inside the apartment, the defendant beat Mr. Keys into unconsciousness and stole his television, which he later sold for five rocks of crack cocaine. As a result of the defendant's actions, Mr. Keys lapsed into a coma and never regained consciousness. He died five months later as a result of his injuries. He was 71 years old at the time.

Ronald Outlaw, 20, of Oxon Hill, Maryland, was sentenced by Superior Court Judge Rafael Diaz to 13 years in prison for injuring two women and two police officers in two separate crashes as he was fleeing from the police. The defendant pled guilty on August 18,

2005, to one count of felony fleeing a law enforcement officer, one count of assault on a police officer, three counts of assault with a dangerous weapon, two counts of felony destruction of property, one count of possession of marijuana, one count of reckless driving, and one count of operating a motor vehicle without a permit. (Case No. F-223-05; PSA 103)

According to the government's evidence, officers of the United States Park Police attempted to conduct a lawful stop of a van that Outlaw was driving on January 8, 2005, near Trinidad Street, NE. Instead of stopping the van, Outlaw led the officers on a high-speed chase through the city. In the process, Outlaw ran several stop signs and drove on the wrong side of the road. When he reached 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, he hit a police cruiser that was trying to get out of his way. The two officers inside the car suffered non-life threatening injuries.

Outlaw then sped down East Capitol Street and slammed into another car containing two elderly women. Both of the victims suffered significant injuries to their neck, back and hips. The crash also caused over $7,000 worth of damage to their car. Instead of stopping at that point, Outlaw continued to flee from the police despite significant damage to his van including two flat tires. Police officers eventually boxed in the van. Outlaw got out of the van and continued to flee on foot. Several officers of the Metropolitan Police Department and the U.S. Park Police ran after him. While he was running, Outlaw threw a bag of marijuana into a sewer drain. Police officers eventually found Outlaw hiding under a car and arrested him.

On December 20, 2005, Mary Louise Kelly, of the 200 block of 14th Street SE, pled guilty to two counts of second-degree burglary in D.C. Superior Court. She faces incarceration of up to thirty years when she is sentenced by the Honorable Hiram Puig-Lugo on February 17, 2006 (Case No. F-5226-05, PSA 103)

According to the government's evidence in one of the burglaries, on September 10, 2005, at approximately 10:15 a.m., the complainant left her residence unlocked to attach a bike rack to her vehicle, which was parked just out front. She returned to her residence a short time later and found a pair of feet sticking out of a closet door in an upstairs bedroom. The complainant immediately went downstairs and called the police. She and another resident waited in the rear of the residence until police arrived. Upon arrival, police watched as the defendant walked down the stairs and attempted to exit the residence. When police stopped her, the defendant was carrying a necklace that belonged to one of the residents.

At the time of her arrest, the defendant had numerous open warrants for escape and failure to appear in court. Subsequent to her arrest, the defendant confessed to this burglary, as well as to numerous other burglaries in which she had been involved.

DISTRICT COURT CASES

Andrea Grimsley, 57, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, was sentenced on December 9, 2005, by United States Magistrate Judge John M. Facciola, on her prior guilty plea to a misdemeanor conflict of interest charge, that is, acts affecting a personal financial interest.

Grimsley was the Chief of the Headquarters Support Branch, United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) Division, DHS, which is located in Washington, D.C. Between late 2003 and early 2004, Grimsley, in her capacity as a DHS official, participated in the procurement contract bidding process with a company that she also was in negotiations with for employment. Grimsley ultimately accepted and began employment with the company. Grimsley was sentenced by Magistrate Judge Facciola to one year of probation, a $1,000 fine and 40 hours of community service.

According to the government’s proffer of evidence at the time of the plea, with which Grimsley agreed, the Headquarters Support Branch, among other things, reviewed, commented upon, and made recommendations regarding federal contracts to be awarded to private organizations to support its mission of developing and coordinating the implementation of a comprehensive national strategy to secure the United States. As the Branch Chief, Grimsley had primary authority for oversight and direction of procurement activities. Her responsibilities included providing technical guidance, formulating contract actions, negotiating procurement initiatives and resolving disputes and claims for ICE.

The Weapons and Ammunition Commodity Council (“WACC”) was part of DHS’s Strategic Sourcing Program, an initiative to optimize cross-departmental handgun acquisitions through collaboration of agency technical and acquisition experts. The National Firearms and Tactical Training Unit (“NFTTU”) was an office within DHS, which was responsible for the technical aspects of weapons contracting.

FedBid.com (“FedBid”), a private, for-profit business, located in McLean, Virginia, that provided web-based procurement services to public sector organizations such as DHS, offered an online reverse auctioning service that allowed federal agencies to solicit contractors. In exchange for its auction services, FedBid received a commission (generally 3% of the contract price) from the successful contract award recipient.

In November of 2003, the WACC announced that the Headquarters Support Branch of ICE, in conjunction with the NFTTU, would head a procurement initiative (“the handgun acquisition”) to acquire an additional 65,000 pistols for their existing stock of weapons to be distributed among all organizational elements within DHS, including ICE, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the Transportation Security Administration, the U.S. Coast Guard and the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center.

In November of 2003, as Chief of the Headquarters Support Branch of ICE, Grimsley was initially assigned and did assume responsibility as the Contracting Officer for the handgun acquisition. Generally, the Contracting Officer has the sole authority and duty to enter into, administer, and make related determinations and findings regarding the handgun acquisition. In short, the Contracting Officer was responsible for overseeing all substantive and technical aspects of the handgun acquisition, including the method and manner for the solicitation of bids.

From late November of 2003 through February of 2004, Grimsley was a candidate for a position at FedBid as an account executive reporting directly to its Vice President. On January 13, 2004, ICE issued a Request for Information soliciting information about a pistol model type from potential contractors. The handgun contract solicitation requirements were defined as follows in the Request for Information: "Pricing will be submitted through a Reverse Auction. Only contractors that are considered technically acceptable after evaluation of the technical requirements shall be permitted to participate in the Reverse Auction. Offerors will need to register with FedBid to submit their pricing quotes. Questions regarding registration should be addressed to client services at FedBid's toll free number."

In late November of 2003, Grimsley sought advice from the Ethics Officer at ICE about a potential conflict of interest related to her employment negotiations with FedBid and, on December 1, 2003, sent an email to him confirming their discussion. In that email, Grimsley stated that "[a]ny acquisitions that might be considered for FedBid soliciting will be handled by our senior contract specialist . . . [t]his will prevent the appearance that I'm recommending the use of FedBid." Notwithstanding this email, and in violation of the conflict of interest laws, in late-2003 and early-2004, Grimsley, in her capacity as Branch Chief, did participate personally and substantially in the handgun acquisition, a matter in which she knew FedBid had a financial interest. She, among other things, attended contract meetings and engaged in telephone calls regarding the handgun acquisition contract, including directing her subordinate to include a requirement that all prospective bidders register with and utilize FedBid during the procurement process, at a time when Grimsley negotiated, accepted, then began employment with FedBid.

The girl had been li Yves Jean Louis, 24, and Ernso Louis, 19, both of Haiti, pled guilty December 16, 2005, before the Honorable John D. Bates in U.S. District Court in Washington, D.C., to the hostage taking of a nine-year-old girl who is a United States citizen. ving with her family in the area of Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Both Yves Jean Louis and Ernso Louis face maximum sentences up to life imprisonment under the Hostage Taking statute. The two Louis defendants were arrested in early October in Haiti and were brought to the United States.

The ordeal for the little girl began in the early morning hours of September 26, 2005, when Yves Jean Louis, Ernso Louis and two other assailants abducted the girl from her bed, after having invaded the family's home. The girl was taken to a remote mountain location and held there for more than one week, during which time she became ill. The girl was told repeatedly that if she told anyone or tried to escape, she would be killed. During that time, the hostage-takers made demands for ransom, starting at $200,000 in U.S. dollars. A citizen passing through the area where the girl was being held became aware of her presence and alerted the authorities. The girl was rescued on October 4, 2005. The authorities apprehended Ernso Louis at the scene and located Yves Jean Louis a short while later. The two other hostage-takers remain at large.

A federal jury in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia returned a guilty verdict on December 15, 2005, against Vincent Reed, 45, of Washington, D.C., for robbing the Printing and Engraving Federal Credit Union located on the campus of Catholic University and carjacking an innocent bystander's car in order to flee the scene. Reed now faces a maximum of 49 years in prison and a $500,000 fine. The defendant will be sentenced on March 9, 2006, before the Honorable Reggie B. Walton.

The evidence presented at trial showed that Vincent Reed, armed with a gun and wearing a mask on his face, and his brother, Ronald Reed, entered the Engraving and Printing Federal Credit Union on the morning of December 1, 2003, pointed a gun at the lone teller in the bank and demanded money. The robbers fled the bank with approximately $25,000 in cash and money orders. Ronald Reed was arrested on the scene, but Vincent Reed alluded capture by carjacking a pick-up truck belonging to an innocent bystander, who was stopped at a light. When the fleeing robber dropped his facemask, Catholic University Security officers recognized him as a former Catholic University employee. That identification led FBI agents and Metropolitan Police officers to distribute wanted posters throughout the city.

On December 2, 2003, officers from the Metropolitan Police Department recognized Vincent Reed as a person they had encountered earlier in the day in an unrelated incident. Upon the defendant's arrest, officers recovered more than $1000 in cash.

On December 6, 2005, Ronald Reed, 47, also of Washington, D.C., entered a guilty plea to Armed Bank Robbery. He will be sentenced before the Honorable Reggie B. Walton on March 10, 2006.

Dorothy Marie Marshall, 52, of O Street, SE, Washington, D.C., was sentenced to 20 months of incarceration on December 12, 2005, in United States District Court before the Honorable Ricardo M. Urbina following her guilty plea in June 2005 to two counts of Bank Fraud. The Court also ordered Marshall to forfeit a total of $185,000. Marshall provided a certified check for $100,000 as partial payment of the forfeiture.

According to the government's evidence, the defendant was employed by McKinney & Associates, Inc., a private public relations firm, between May 1997 to March 2001, first as Office Manager, and then as General Manager. In both positions at McKinney & Associates, Marshall served as the Assistant to the President, and was responsible for the management of some accounting duties, which included working with the bookkeeper regarding financial matters, maintaining leave records, reviewing accounts payable, paying invoices received from vendors, and making deposits, in addition to her responsibility for daily office management. Marshall was not an authorized signatory on McKinney & Associates' checks, and only the President of McKinney & Associates had signatory authority on checks belonging to McKinney & Associates drawn on its account with Adams National Bank.

Between October 1998 and March 2001, Marshall engaged in a course of conduct to embezzle money from McKinney & Associates and to defraud Adams National Bank by forging the signature of the President of McKinney & Associates on at least sixty-six (66) checks drawn on McKinney & Associates' account with Adams National Bank, and causing the forged McKinney & Associates' checks to be delivered to the designated payees by mail, bank deposit, or other means, thereby diverting a total of $86,357.22 held in the care, custody, and control of Adams National Bank to Marshall's personal use. The majority of those forged checks was made payable to Cross Country Bank, in payment of the defendant's credit card account with Cross Country Bank, and the other checks were made payable to other entities, such as Caruso Florist, State Farm Insurance, and Flagship Credit Corporation.

Marshall altered McKinney & Associates' accounting system in a variety of ways in an effort to hide the bank fraud and embezzlement, such as creating false invoices to support the forged checks, inflating expense entries, failing to enter expenses, or entering incorrect payees. Marshall also intercepted, secreted, or destroyed many of the cancelled checks that were returned to McKinney & Associates in an effort to conceal her commission of the criminal offense charged in the information. McKinney & Associates has sustained a loss of $86,357.22 as the result of Marshall's commission of the bank fraud charged in Count One of the Information.

The facts supporting the second count of Bank Fraud to which Marshall pled guilty stemmed from her work as the Director of Finance and Administration for Tech Works for Good, now known as NPower Greater D.C. Region (hereafter "Tech Works"), which is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose purpose is to provide technology support and services to other area non-profit organizations. Tech Works is supported by foundations such as AOL Time Warner, Fannie Mae Foundation and the Meyer Foundation. Marshall served as the Director of Finance and Revenue from April 16, 2001 through February 13, 2003, at which time she was discharged for cause after some of the facts giving rise to the charge to which she pled guilty were discovered.

As Tech Works' Director of Finance and Revenue, Marshall was responsible for ensuring the prompt payment of invoices due and owing by Tech Works. Marshall would prepare the requisite checks drawn on Tech Works' bank account with BB&T Bank, and present the invoices and the checks to the President for his or her signature. Between April 2001 and February 2003, Marshall engaged in a course of conduct to embezzle money from Tech Works and to defraud BB&T Bank by forging the signature of the current and former Presidents of Tech Works on at least fifty-two (52) checks drawn on Tech Works' account with BB&T Bank, and causing the forged Tech Works' checks to be delivered to the designated payees by mail, bank deposit, or other means, thereby diverting a total of $106,524.44 held in the care, custody, and control of BB&T Bank to Marshall's personal use. The checks made payable to Cross Country Bank, in payment of the defendant's credit card account with Cross Country Bank, constituted the majority of the forged checks. The remaining checks were made payable to Dorothy Marshall, or other entities, such as the U.S. Department of Education, Avedon, and the Internal Revenue Service.

Marshall also used her position with Tech Works to open, without authorization, and under false pretenses, a corporate Citibank Credit Card account, in the name of Dorothy Marshall and Technology Works for Good, and thereby obtained a "CitiBusiness Card" credit card in the name of Dorothy M. Marshall. Marshall used the unauthorized CitiBusiness Card credit card solely for purchases of items for her personal use, or for that of her family or friends. Marshall also used the CitiBusiness Card to charge three partial payments on a $7200.00 cruise to the Caribbean with the Tom Joyner Foundation Fantastic Voyage 2003 for Marshall and a guest.

In addition to forging the signatures of the Presidents of Tech Works on Tech Works' BB& T checks, Marshall accomplished the bank fraud and embezzlement by causing the forged Tech Works' checks drawn on Tech Works' bank account with BB&T to be sent to her creditors, other payees, or recipients, through the U.S. mail, by cashing the forged checks at a financial institution, by depositing them in one of Marshall's bank accounts, or by providing the forged Tech Works' check directly to an unauthorized payee, for Marshall's personal use or in payment of Marshall's personal debts and expenses.

For purposes of restitution and forfeiture, Tech Works sustained a loss of $106,524.44 as the result of Marshall's commission of the bank fraud.

Zachary John Nielson Gimpel, 62, from Waterville, Maine, was sentenced on January 6, 2006, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia by the Honorable Emmet G. Sullivan, to a term of 62 months in prison to be followed by supervised release for life for distributing child pornography. Gimpel pled guilty in August 2005, to a Criminal Information charging him with one count of Sexual Exploitation of Minors Through the Knowing Transportation of Sexually Explicit Conduct Using Minors in Interstate Commerce by Means of a Computer, following an investigation by the United States Secret Service Electronic Crimes Task Force. Gimpel sent child pornography over the internet to an undercover Secret Service Agent in the District of Columbia on April 30, 2004.

“By disseminating child pornography, this defendant and other miscreants like him inflict lasting damage to the physical and emotional well-being of the child victims. They also contribute to the deviance of those who download and view their materials. We in law enforcement will stop at nothing to apprehend and incarcerate purveyors of child-exploiting pornography like "100%preteengirlsexpics" for as long as the law allows,” said United States Attorney Wainstein.

According to the government's evidence, Gimpel transported the child pornography by operating his mother's computer as a file server which allowed selected files to be downloaded by the public and allowed the public to upload files to that computer, and by advertising on specified Internet Relay Chat (IRC) channels a willingness to receive or distribute files. Gimpel advertised his file server on the “100%preteengirlsexpics” IRC channel, making available to the public a collection of thousands of images and movie files of child pornography and erotic depictions of children. Gimpel was arrested on March 25, 2005, in Portland, Maine.

The child pornography involved is alleged to have been produced through the use of actual minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct and the material was allegedly a visual depiction of such conduct.

Xavier Valentino Brown, also known as “Gordo,” 42, was found guilty on January 6, 2006, by a federal jury in the District of Columbia of conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute one kilogram or more of heroin. Brown will be sentenced by U.S. District Judge James Robertson on April 21, 2006. He faces up to life imprisonment.

The evidence at trial showed that between May 2004 and December 2004, Xavier Valentino Brown and others conspired to possess with intent to distribute and distribute several kilograms of heroin in the Washington area that had been shipped from Panama. In furtherance of the conspiracy, on January 6, 2005, Brown came to Washington, D.C. to meet with a person he believed owed money for a prior drug delivery for several kilograms of heroin which had been given to a confidential informant (“CI”) by a drug kingpin who lived in Panama. Brown drove to Washington and met the CI in the rear parking lot of a McDonald’s located on New York Avenue, NE. When Brown exited the CI’s vehicle and attempted to return to his vehicle he was driving, he was placed under arrest by the FBI.

Youssef Mahir, 41, of Woodbridge, Virginia, was sentenced on December 12, 2005, to time-served followed by a three-year period of supervised release that includes two months of home detention and 200 hours of community service after entering a plea of guilty in August before U.S. District Judge Ricardo M. Urbina to one count of mail fraud.

According to the government’s evidence, during the period of September 2001 through October 2002, Youssef Mahir was an Account Service Representative for The Center for International Business and Travel (“CIBT”), a travel agency business which is a contractor for the World Bank headquartered at 1818 H Street, NW, Washington, D.C. CIBT obtains visas and other travel documentation on behalf of the World Bank and its officials. Such visas and travel documentation are vital to the work of the World Bank.

In late September 2001, a childhood friend of Youssef Mahir who was a Moroccan national living in Austin, Texas, and in Albany, New York, contacted Mahir and told him that he was planning to go to Morocco in 2001 for personal reasons and needed to obtain a visa from the Embassy of Germany. Mahir’s responsibilities included obtaining visas on behalf of World Bank employees and consultants. His friend told Mahir that he needed the visa quickly. Mahir offered to use his position at CIBT to obtain the necessary visa for his friend. Mahir told his friend to mail his passport, a copy of his Resident Alien card and two photographs to Mahir at the World Bank. Mahir drafted a World Bank cover letter and visa application and sent the documents through a courier to the Embassy of Germany in Washington, D.C. In the World Bank cover letter, Mahir represented that the friend was a World Bank consultant and would be traveling on official business for the World Bank. Mahir obtained the multiple-entry visa from the Embassy of Germany on September 25, 2001, and mailed it through the U.S. Postal Service to the friend in Texas. The friend was not then and never had been an employee or consultant for the World Bank.

In August 2002, the friend again contacted Mahir and stated that he wanted to go to Morocco for personal reasons and needed a visa from the Embassy of France. Mahir offered to use his position at CIBT to obtain the necessary visa for his friend. Mahir told his friend to mail his passport, a copy of his Residential Alien card and two photographs to Mahir at the World Bank. Mahir drafted a World Bank cover letter and visa application and sent the documents through a courier to the Embassy of France in Washington, D.C. In the World Bank cover letter, Mahir represented that his friend was a World Bank consultant and would be traveling on official business for the World Bank. Mahir obtained the multiple-entry visa from the Embassy of France on September 3, 2002.

In October 2002, his friend again contacted Mahir and stated that he wanted to go to Morocco for personal reasons, but wanted to travel through England on a cheaper flight and needed a visa from the Embassy of the United Kingdom. Mahir offered to use his position at CIBT to obtain the necessary visa for his friend. Mahir told him to mail his passport, his original Resident Alien card, and two photographs to Mahir at the World Bank. Mahir drafted a World Bank cover letter and visa application and then Mahir mailed his friend's documents via Federal Express from the World Bank to the Consulate of the United Kingdom in New York. In the World Bank cover letter, Mahir represented that his friend was a World Bank consultant and would be traveling on official business for the World Bank. Mahir obtained the multiple-entry visa from the consulate of the United Kingdom via return Federal Express mail on October 25, 2002. Mahir then mailed his friend's passport with the valid visa through the U.S. Postal Service to him in Texas. Following an investigation, Mahir was arrested on July 20, 2004.

Thaer Omran Ismail Asaifi, also known as Abu Harp, pled guilty on December 12, 2005, in U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, before Judge Rosemary M. Collyer. Asaifi, 35, admitted to participating in a conspiracy, headed by his wife – naturalized American citizen Neeran Hakim Zaia, of Sterling Heights, Michigan – from early 2001 through September 2004 to illegally smuggle scores of Iraqi and Jordanian nationals into the United States through Ecuador and Peru for profit. Under the terms of the plea agreement it is expected that Asaifi will face a prison sentence of six to eight years, following which he will be deported. Sentencing is scheduled for May, 2006.

"Today's guilty plea represents an important milestone in the three-year ICE undercover investigation known as Operation Tortuga, which targeted a human smuggling organization that moved individuals from the Middle East into the United States for profit. ICE owes a special debt of gratitude to Peruvian authorities who provided critical assistance in combating this criminal syndicate," said ICE Acting Assistant Secretary Clark.

Franco Jefferson Rawlings, 27, of Temple Hills, MD, was found guilty on January 9, 2006, of the charge Unlawful Possession of a Firearm and Ammunition by a federal jury in the District of Columbia. Rawlings will be sentenced by U.S. District Judge Reggie B. Walton on April 5, 2006. He faces a likely sentencing range of 84 to 120 months under the federal sentencing guidelines.

The evidence at trial showed that on October 13, 2004, members of Metropolitan Police Department's Major Narcotics Branch were conducting an operation in the Safeway parking lot, located in the 1600 block of Maryland Avenue, NE, Washington, D.C., when they observed Rawlings drive away at a high rate of speed in a vehicle. During his attempt to flee from the officers, Rawlings ran a red light and hit another vehicle at the intersection of 17th Street and Massachusetts Avenue, SE. When Rawlings' car stopped, he crawled out of the front driver's window of his vehicle and pointed a handgun in the direction of the approaching officers. Moments later, Rawlings dropped the gun in front of his vehicle, and the officers arrested him. The weapon was retrieved from the ground and the gun was found to have live rounds of ammunition in its magazine and one live round in the chamber.

Rawlings was previously convicted of robbery and second-degree assault in Prince George's County, Maryland.

Michael V. Donahoe, 53, whose last known address was in the 4700 block of Wisconsin Avenue, NW, in Washington, D.C., pled guilty on December 1, 2005, in federal court to three counts of bank robbery. Marshall faces a total maximum prison term of sixty (60) years in prison pursuant to the statute, and a likely sentence of between 41 to 51 months under the federal sentencing guidelines. He is scheduled to be sentenced by U.S. District Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on March 9, 2006.

Donahoe was arrested on October 14, 2005, a short distance from the last bank he robbed, when a dye pack exploded in front of the downtown lunchtime crowd on K Street. Today, Donahoe pleaded guilty to robbing that bank, the Eagle Bank, which is located at 1425 K Street, NW. As the defendant was leaving the bank, a citizen followed him and stopped him from getting away in a taxicab. Two FBI agents, who were having lunch, nearby, took Donahoe back to the bank, where he was identified by the victim bank employees. He was arrested with the red ink from the dye pack all over his hands and clothing. In court, Donahoe admitted that he demanded money from the bank teller and tried to get away with approximately $2,000.

After his arrest, the FBI was able to get positive identification of Donahoe at two other area banks that had been robbed in the two weeks prior to Donahoe's arrest. In court, today, Donahoe also admitted that on September 28, 2005, he robbed the SunTrust Bank located at 2929 M Street, NW, getting away with about $800, and that on October 7, 2005, he robbed the United Bank located at 1001 G Street, NW, getting away with approximately $4,000.

Jeffrey N. Jackson, 43, of Mitchellville, Maryland, the former Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of a bankrupt security company, Unlimited Security, Inc., pled guilty on January 17, 2006, in U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia before the Honorable Ricardo M. Urbina, to wrongfully transferring approximately $373,429.57 from the bankruptcy estate to fund a boxing promotion business. Jackson faces up to 5 years in prison under the statute when sentenced on August 10, 2006, but likely will face 24 to 30 months of imprisonment under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines. Jackson also agreed to make restitution in this matter.

As part of his guilty plea, Jackson acknowledged that he was the CEO and co-owner of Unlimited Security. Unlimited Security, the Headquarters of which was located in the District of Columbia, was a company providing security services to the federal and local governments.

On March 19, 2002, Unlimited Security filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Columbia. Following the filing, Unlimited Security continued to operate as a debtor-in-possession with the defendant remaining as CEO during its reorganization.

In the summer months of 2003, the defendant diverted a total of approximately $373,429.57 from the Unlimited Security debtor-in-possession bank accounts for his personal use, primarily for the funding of a private professional boxing promotion business. The funds in those accounts had been advanced to Unlimited Security by a factoring company, Commerce Funding Corporation, to be used solely to pay Unlimited Security’s payroll, including payroll taxes.

On June 26, 2003, $521,943.47 was wired from Commerce Funding to an Unlimited Security debtor-in-possession operating account. On June 27, 2003, the defendant caused a wire transfer of $142,429.57 from the Unlimited Security’s operating account to a banking account of World’s Finest Promotions LLC. World’s Finest, which was owned by the defendant, was a business to sponsor professional boxing matches and was based at Unlimited Security’s headquarters address.

On July 24, 2003, a consultant appointed by the bankruptcy court in the bankruptcy matter confronted the defendant who admitted that the funds had been removed at his direction from the operating account. The defendant indicated to the consultant that the funds would be replaced within ten days. The funds, however, were not replaced.

On July 14, 2003, $185,521.36 was wired from Commerce Funding into an Unlimited Security operating account. On July 15, 2003, the defendant caused $119,000 to be transferred from the operating account into the tax account. On July 18, 2003, the defendant withdrew $105,000 from the tax account to purchase a cashier’s check. Thereafter, the defendant caused several additional financial transactions from the funds from this check, including the defendant receiving cash and additional cashier's checks. Some of these secondary cashier's checks were then used by the defendant to fund the defendant's boxing promotion business, including paying fees to the D.C. Boxing Commission and provide funds to a professional boxer ("Boxer #1).

On July 29, 2003, $208,114 was wired from Commerce Funding into Unlimited Security's operating account. On August 4, 2003, the defendant withdrew $10,000 from the operating account, and caused a check for that amount to be made payable to the defendant. The defendant also caused $128,000 to be transferred to Unlimited Security's tax account. On August 7, 2003, the defendant did a counter withdrawal of $6,000 from the tax account.

On August 12, 2003, the defendant withdrew $110,000 from the tax account and obtained a cashier's check made payable to an individual, a professional boxer ("Boxer #2"), for the purpose of an investment in Boxer #2's professional boxing career.

On August 13, 2003, the consultant confronted the defendant, who admitted that the funds transferred in July and August of 2003 had been removed at his direction from the operating and tax accounts. The defendant indicated to the consultant that the funds would be replaced by September 16, 2003. The funds, however, were not replaced.

David Johnson, 35, of the 4900 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, Washington, D.C., a former D.C. Public School Transportation Division employee, was sentenced on January 17, 2006, in U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia before the Honorable Gladys Kessler, to an 18-month prison term and ordered to pay $30,000 in restitution to the D.C. government for his role in a bribery scheme with a District government clerk

Johnson pled guilty on October 12, 2005, acknowledging that he paid money to Tonette Cooks, a teller formerly employed by the D.C. Office of Finance and Treasury ("OFT") and working for the D.C. Bureau of Traffic Adjudication, in exchange for Cooks falsely recording that various automobile tickets and fines had been paid in full. On October 21, 2003, Cooks, 30, formerly of the 4800 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, pled guilty to engaging in the bribery scheme with Johnson and others, and was herself sentenced on November 15, 2005, by Judge Kessler to 18 months of incarceration and ordered to pay $200,000 in restitution to the D.C. government.

As part of his plea, Johnson admitted that he operated as a "middleman," collecting numerous "customers" and their bribe money, and providing Cooks with the tickets or fines to be fixed and delivering to her a portion of the bribe money. A second "middleman" with whom Cooks worked, Ms. Sherry McKnight, 41, formerly of the 3000 block of Stanton Road, SE, pled guilty on October 17, 2003, to participating with Cooks in the bribery scheme, and on April 28, 2004, was sentenced to 46 months of incarceration. Johnson admitted that his actions resulted in a loss to the D.C. government of over $30,000.
